

MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Assistant

FROM : Acting Chief, Intelligence School

SUBJECT : Weekly Report of Intelligence School Activities
No. 2, 9 - 15 January 1970

1. Intelligence and World Affairs (Part I), which corresponds to the old CT Orientation, ran from 5 through 15 January for 25 career trainees. It was an entirely new course as to concept, structure, content, and pedagogy. It was well received by the students. A complete report will be prepared and submitted as soon as students have submitted critiques. ✓

2. Because of the new policy of requiring special clearances for all those attending the Introduction to Intelligence, [redacted] has informed us that their contract people in the [redacted] program can no longer be enrolled in the ITC. The Division is anxious to have about 13 of its people receive orientation training before they report to [redacted] on 16 February for operations training. [redacted] plans to meet with several [redacted] officials on 16 January to see what can be worked out. ✓

5. [REDACTED] Chief of the Medical and Behavioral Sciences Division in ORD visited [REDACTED] this week to discuss cultural effectiveness training. [REDACTED] has spoken to a variety of Agency audiences on the problems of the American abroad. He and Marc agree on the need for a study of the present state of cross-cultural training in and out of Government, which ORD might be able to support. A new source of information on training programs and materials is now available to us through a new member of the Inter-Agency Roundtable for Area Training. This is [REDACTED] a former trainer with the Peace Corps, who left the Government when the Peace Corps abolished its training organization. [REDACTED] is now Director of Educational Technology and Training with [REDACTED] with special competence in the diagnosis of training problems, particularly those of a community type.

The Foreign Service Institute wants 25 copies and the National Security Agency, 35. [REDACTED] expects an answer from the Defense Intelligence School in a week or so. The editor of Studies, [REDACTED] has been informed of our progress. After Dan returns from Kings Point he will be in touch with [REDACTED] again early in February.

[REDACTED] are participants in the program. The first week of the two-week program introduced the trainee to the US Intelligence Community and to CIA; the second week will be monitored by [REDACTED] of OER and will consist of a series of case examples drawn from OER experience in economic intelligence production. The [REDACTED] economist has been cooperative, perceptive, and responsive to all presentations; particularly those on methodologies new to him, such as [REDACTED] and on subject matter of major interest to him, such as [REDACTED]

He has only one complaint about U.S. foreign policy: our aid to [REDACTED] He has asked that the training be extended beyond the period already planned, possibly for as long as two months. However his case officer has suggested, after consultation with OER and OTR, that the decision on this be deferred until the scheduled training has been carried out and the trainee has had an opportunity to see what has been prepared for him so far.
